DOCUMENTATION

- Original documents are required
- Please attach the following documents to this form:
 - Original policy/certificate of insurance.
 - Original bill of lading, consignment freight notes, air waybill.
 - Supplier's invoice for full shipment.
 - Original or copy of shipping invoices, together with shipping specification and/or weight notes.
 - Packing lists, if applicable.
 - Copy of delivery receipt, EWP & tally notes.
 - An EWP note (“Exception Without Prejudice”) acknowledges, without admitting liability, that damage/loss has occurred.
 - When goods are received, a delivery receipt is usually signed. If these goods are damaged, or partially missing, the receipt given to the carrier should note that the goods are damaged or partially missing. If the exterior packing is damaged, then the delivery receipt can be noted “packaging damaged”.
 - Copy of the initial notice of claim on carriers. See example on reverse of next page.
 - This is a written notice of loss or damage to goods given to transport operators or freight forwarders.
 - Copy of all correspondence entered into with carriers and other parties regarding their liability for loss or damage.
 - All container temperature charts, if applicable.
 - Itemised valued claim.
 - A valued claim is a claim with an accurate value of loss of damage.

INITIAL NOTICE OF CLAIM - VERY IMPORTANT (This protects your Insurer's recovery rights)

Failure to take this action may jeopardise your claim.

An Initial Notice of Claim (see reverse) must be faxed immediately to the company or carrier who issued the bill of lading/air waybill or their local agents and/or the airline who discharged cargo at the country of destination
and/or the road delivery carrier should there be any evidence of indication that they may have caused, or contributed to, the damage.

RECEIPT OF GOODS

- Always inspect thoroughly for damage.
 - Short delivery - count the packages.
 - Do not give a clean receipt. Endorse the delivery docket as "Goods damaged".
 - Re-taped packaging is a sure sign of pilferage - check contents.

UNPACKING

- Unpack or open packaging to inspect goods as soon as possible for hidden damage.
 - Keep packaging for inspection.

JOINT SURVEY

Phone responsible Carrier and invite them to a joint survey inspection with the insurer.

MINIMISE LOSS

Take such reasonable action to prevent further loss. Act as if uninsured.

INITIAL NOTICE OF CLAIM

NOTIFICATION TO TRANSPORT OPERATORS OF POTENTIAL CLAIM

This form should be faxed to any transport operators or freight forwarders who issued or tendered the transport document (i.e. bill of lading, truck/rail consignment note, air waybill) to you.

For transits by sea, this form should be lodged within 3 days of delivery; for sendings by air this form must be lodged within 14 days of delivery.
